

Sonoma Ball Team Too Much For The Crystals of Petaluma Last Sunday Score 4 to 1

Hungry fans, who braved the unsettled weather last Sunday, were dished a platter full of real baseball.

The Crystals of Petaluma journeyed to the local diamond, apparently to repeat their previous performance against the Sonoma team. They were so sure they would trim us that their opinions were well fortified with cash—real money.

Petaluma's bluff was called and raised, and the consequence is that members of the local sporting fraternity, players included, are now "dotted up" with silk socks, new "Kellies," tan shoes and kid gloves.

Now, readers, do you know who won the ball game? Sonoma was on the long end of a 4 to 1 score. The only run that Petaluma made was presented to them on a silver tray.

"Hunk" Anselmi, after missing a hard chance, retrieved the ball and played for the man going home. "Zowie," over the grand stand flew the little pellet! Nevertheless, "Hunk" redeemed himself by a timely hit that scored a run, again putting "Our Boys" in the lead.

"Lefty" Helberg was on the firing line for Sonoma. He was in rare form, and had the chicks from Petaluma eating from his hand. "Lefty" only allowed four hits and struck out fourteen men. During the uproar raised by the visitors in the ninth, "Fritz" hit a batter, and an error put two Crystals on bases. The feat of Ralph Evans to derrick Helberg was a hard one for the locals to swallow, after the form displayed by "Lefty" in the previous innings. Nevertheless, Pete Boccoli was the right man in the right place. He fanned the three batters that faced him, the runners on the bases being unable to advance and the game was over.

This is the second victory for Sonoma this season, with the exception of a practice game with Boyes' Springs team. It's a victory to be proud of, as the game was in doubt until the final rally in the 8th. Up to this time the score stood 1 to 1.

At present, Ralph Evans, the captain of Sonoma Club, has his team placed. If the present infield can stand, it was demonstrated last Sunday that it is invincible.

Our hard-hitting outfield is headed by "Ping" Nessi, who is batting heavily. He found his eye last Sunday, and pounded out three hits. He was walked purposely by the opposing pitcher in the eighth inning.

Evans, Brown, Rahwyler and "Dutch" Andrieux all supported their pitcher in excellent fashion.

The game played by Sonoma proved that they are real ball players and well deserve the support of the local fans.

The Petaluma Courier generously credits the Sonoma nine as winning "through their ability to hit the ball," and says that "Helberg pitched a superb game."

GRAND BALL AT GLEN ELLEN TONIGHT

Another event on the tapis tonight is the Grand Ball to be given by the Glen Ellen Social Club, at Chauvet Hall. The committee in charge state that a record-breaking attendance is already assured, and many guests from Santa Rosa and Sonoma will be present to help make the occasion one to be long remembered.

Music is to be furnished by Krepe & Hansen (piano and drums) and these gentlemen promise to play only the latest dance hits.

Messrs. Milton Sobbe and M. Gordenker, popular Glen Ellen Beau Brummels, are to officiate as floor managers—another assurance of a good time.

Those wishing to attend may arrange with the Auto Bus Transportation Company at headquarters at the Union Hotel.

The members of the Social Club comprise a number of prominent Glen Ellen residents, hence the dance is well worthy of patronage.

SONOMA VALLEY UNION HIGH SCHOOL WINS DEBATE AT NAPA

EMERY RANKER

GLADYS SIMMONS

HENRY WALTZ

Hip Hurray! The Cup is ours. The long looked for and hoped for Trophy has at last after a series of debates, between Napa, Solano and Sonoma Counties, been awarded to the Sonoma Valley Union High School.

The last debate of the series was held last Friday night, May 14th, in Napa. The question was, "Resolved that all Corporations doing an Inter-State business shall be compelled to operate under a Federal Charter. The Sonoma team supported the affirmative side.

The members of the Sonoma team were: Gladys Simmons, Emery Ranker and Henry Waltz. We are sorry to say that they are all Seniors. Consequently, this was their last appearance as Sonoma Valley Union High School Debaters. As a result they put forth a supreme effort to gain the coveted trophy for the honor of their School. Although Napa put a strong, experienced team against Sonoma, they went down to defeat before the local team.

The Team showed a marvelous increase of ability, both collectively and individually, and it was their wonderful team work as much as anything that won the contest.

The Judges of the Debate were three men from the University of California, and their decision was unanimous in favor of Sonoma.

The Sonoma team is a well balanced one, each debater making an individual contribution towards its success. Henry Waltz, who opened the discussion for the affirmative was deliberate, straightforward, and convincing, both in delivery and argument. He gave the history of the question, and showed that the position of the negative was wholly untenable in that the Economic development of the Nation had rendered State Control anachronistic.

Gladys Simmons, who won special praise from the Judges for the constance and strength of her arguments, pointed out the evils of Trust management under State control. She was certainly in her best, and delivered her argument in a spirited and logical manner.

Emery Ranker, who closed the argument for the affirmative, made the hit of the evening with the Judges and audience by his splendid rebuttal. The main part of his argument was given over to proving that Federal control would correct the evils inherent in State control. He spoke with force and conviction, and was commended greatly for his clear logic and forceful reasoning.

Sonoma is greatly indebted to Miss More and Miss Trueblood, for their untiring efforts in coaching and training the Team. The victory is in a great part due to their fine work.

The Sonoma team was well supported by their friends, three automobile loads going over. Those making the trip besides the Debaters already mentioned were: Miss More, Miss Trueblood, Rev. J. Henry Oehlhoff, Irene and Alma Douglas, Alma Cooper, Harold Weise, Oscar O'Connor, Phil Zeiro, Clyde Johansen, Stewart Potter, Russel and Rodney Prestwood, Harold Hotz, Sidney Cameron, Chas. Potter and Joe Andrieux.

The evening was joyously completed by a dance given by the Napa High School in the Auditorium.

The crowd that left Napa on that memorable Friday night was a happy and contented one, joyous over their great victory.

Redmen's Big Picnic at Oak Grove— Annual Opening at Fetter's— Big Time at Boyes'

Picnic at Oak Grove

Everything is in readiness for the picnic to be given at Oak Grove tomorrow (Sunday) May 23d, by Sonoma Stamm, No. 293, United Order Redmen.

Arrangements have been perfected by the committee in charge—Messrs. John Gross, Fred Selig, Henry Heuer, C. A. Weissar and Henry Koerner—for one of the most successful and thoroughly enjoyable out-door fetes ever held in the valley.

No more capable men could have been chosen to carry out the big undertaking, as the committee comprise energetic, active spirits, experienced in the planning and effective arranging of public amusements, therefore a day of events worth while may be anticipated.

Music for dancing is to be furnished by the Sonoma Valley Band. Games and other forms of recreation are to be features, with prizes for skill in a variety of contests. Gate prizes are also to be given. All roads lead to Oak Grove Villa tomorrow, whose hospitable proprietors, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koerner, will painstakingly assist the Redmen in contributing to the general pleasure.

Opening at Fetter's

Tonight (Saturday) May 22nd, takes place the grand ball, which formally opens Fetter's Springs for the season of 1915.

The event promises to be the most brilliant in the history of the popular resort, as no detail of arrangement has been omitted to insure a good time for the many hundreds who are expected to be present.

Fetter's has one of the finest dance floors in the valley, and a splendid orchestra of three pieces (regularly engaged for the season) provides music for dancing.

From Santa Rosa comes word of numerous auto parties being made up to motor over for the affair, while Petaluma and other county points will be largely represented this year as on former occasions. As we announced last week,

Mr. and Mrs. Fetter's extend to everybody a cordial invitation to attend the Annual Ball and Opening, tonight, to which no admission will be charged. Everything free—dancing, vaudeville, moving pictures and supper.

Doings at Boyes'

Big doings are on at Boyes' Springs, too, tonight, and next Saturday and Sunday nights there will be still "bigger" doings.

Tonight there arrives at the State-famed resort a large delegation of the staff of the San Francisco Call and of the Traffic Club of the metropolis, numbering over a hundred. Dancing, baseball and other features will entertain these and other guests.

Next week, Saturday and Sunday, occurs the formal opening of Boyes' Springs, and from then on there'll be no end of attractions and good times at the resort.

Landers Stevens, well-known actor and "prince of good fellows," who has taken an interest in the Springs and intends spending the summer there, will manage the amusement end of the business for this season.

Former Amusement Manager "Art" Hickman, remembering his host of Sonoma Valley friends, will take advantage of his only possible opportunity and free night—Sunday, May 29th, and will bring his orchestra from the St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco, to play for dancing at the 1915 Opening of Boyes' Springs.

"A big act for Saturday night, May 30th," says Amusement Manager Stevens. "Just tell your readers to watch for our posters next week, for complete program, and to prepare to attend these two big nights at the resort which has yet to fail in making a success of any entertainment, or of pleasing the amusement-loving public."

We may and do expect Mr. Stevens to arrange some good "stunts," but he'll certainly have "to go some" to beat our friend, "Art" Hickman, for whom we'll be ready with the glad hand.

Some "Twenty Years Ago" In Old Sonoma

(FROM THE SONOMA INDEX-TRIBUNE OF MAY 25, 1895.)

Misses Carrie and Pauline Pauli are up from the city and will spend the summer with their brother, A. F. Pauli.

The graduating exercises of the Class of '95, of the Sonoma Valley Union High School, numbering fifteen students, will take place about the middle of June.

S. Schocken, one of Sonoma's most prominent and enterprising citizens, had a project on foot some time ago to erect a large swimming bath in the rear of his premises, and the spark of energy has again illuminated the ideas of our townsman, and with a determination to erect one of the finest swimming baths in California, Mr. Schocken will set a force of men to work some time during the early part of June.

Miss Clara Cheney was in attendance at the picnic held in Ukiah last Wednesday.

Clarence Nauman, of the Bay City, was the guest of Sonoma friends last Sunday.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hotz on Broadway was the scene of a merry gathering of young ladies and gentlemen on Friday evening of last week, the occasion being a party complimentary to Miss Lily Sweet of Napa.

Eugene Donaldson, Fred Batto and Wm. Kerner, members of the Sonoma Bicycle Club, rode on their wheels last Sunday up to Santa Rosa, then down to Petaluma and then over to Sonoma. The wheelmen report having had a very enjoyable time.

MISS ALICE RUBKE AND JOHN PICETTI UNITED IN MARRIAGE

The announcement of the marriage of John F. Picetti and Miss Alice Rubke was a pleasant surprise to Sonoma Valley friends. The existence of the betrothal of these representative young people was not a secret, but the sequel to their romance had not been looked for until a later date.

The happy twain quietly slipped away, Sunday, to Sausalito, where they were united, Rev. Father Valentini solemnizing the ceremony. The groom's sister, Miss Virginia Picetti, and Fred Rubke, brother of the bride, were the attendants. The auspicious event occurred at high noon and was witnessed by near relatives only.

The lovely bride was charming in a tailored suit of black and white check. She wore a picture hat of white and carried a shower of white roses. The maid of honor was also attractively attired in a tailored suit of black and white check.

Following the nuptials, the bridal party crossed the bay to San Francisco, where an elaborate wedding breakfast was partaken of at the Hotel Stewart.

On Monday Mr. and Mrs. Picetti departed on a honeymoon trip in the groom's Hudson touring car, via the coast route to Mexico, with stops to be made at all intermediate points of pleasure and interest. They will be absent a fortnight, and will journey home by way of the valley road.

The fair bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Rubke, prominent pioneer residents of the Sonoma Valley. She is a delightful girl, of winsome personality, and a great favorite in her wide circle of friends. The fortunate groom is truly worthy of the popular girl whom he has won. Mr. Picetti is a leading, enterprising business man of Sonoma, Secretary of the Sonoma Valley Chamber of Commerce, commanding and enjoying the confidence of the community and the friendship of the host.

May the matrimonial barque so happily launched anchor safely in the harbor of domestic happiness and prosperity.

MERYL BISH UNDERGOES OPERATION

Friends of the family of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Bish will be glad to learn that their fourteen-year-old son Meryl is progressing splendidly at the Mary Jesse Hospital in Santa Rosa, under the care of Dr. J. W. Jesse, who operated upon the boy, Tuesday last.

Twelve years ago, when a baby two years old, Meryl was sitting in front of a fire, and the blanket covering his legs took fire, his feet being badly burned in consequence. The Bish family at this time were living in Rincon Valley, near Santa Rosa, and Dr. Jesse saved the baby life by skin grafting. Only stubs of the toes of both feet were left as the result of the accident. These had become twisted and out of shape, rendering it painfully impossible for Meryl to wear shoes. Tuesday, Dr. Jesse removed the remaining portions of the toes, and hoies for excellent results from the operation.

From Mr. Bish (manager of the Madrone Vineyard) we learn that, when Meryl comes out of the hospital, his shoes will be provided with springs in the place where the toes would fit, and thus he will be enabled to walk with comparative ease.

UNIVERSITY GRADUATES

A host of the Sonoma Valley friends of three fortunate young people are extending congratulations on their completion of special courses of study at the University of California.

Miss Emily Poppe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Poppe, of Sonoma, was graduated from the Social Science Department. Miss Poppe will remain at home for a time, we are glad to note. She is a social favorite and generously lends her rare and splendidly cultivated musical talents for home and public functions.

Miss Jessie Stickel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Stickel of El Verano, and sister of Geo. Stickel, of the Union Hotel, graduated with highest honors. Miss Stickel, who is a graduate of the Modoc County High School, is also a very talented girl.

Western Logan, a graduate of our local high school, completed with honors the Agricultural course.

TALENTED CHILDREN IN FINE PROGRAM

Sonoma Valley residents were never given a more enjoyable or pleasing spectacular entertainment than "Ye Little Old Folks' Concert," presented last Friday night, under the auspices of the Congregational Ladies' Aid.

That the children were in training by Mrs. Carrie Burlingame created anticipation of the pretty and effective program produced, for to Mrs. Burlingame must be "handed the palm" for originality of conception, ability to dramatically train for and produce anything in the entertainment line. No undertaking is too difficult, too arduous for Mrs. Burlingame, to whom failure is yet to be accredited.

The little folks were charming in their quaint, old-fashioned costumes, and splendidly presented the following program:

PART ONE

Overture.....Orchestra
Fancy March of All Ye Little Old Folks, led by Arthur Sychrowsky Chorus....."Long, Long Ago"
Vocal Solo....."Blue Juniata"
Katherine Banhero
French Song—Arthur Sychrowsky Chorus.....Yankee Doodle
Recitation.....Walter Carter
Vocal Solo....."Ben Bolt"
Robley Harbot
Chorus....."America,"

PART TWO

Chorus....."Auld Lang Syne"
Vocal Duet....."Billy Boy"
Irma Adler and Gordon Bor'son
Quintette....."Old Oaken Bucket"
Harold and Donald Prestwood,
John Steiner, Robert Poppe,
Clifford Erickson
Chorus....."Wait for the Wagon"
Vocal Solo....."Grandma's Advice"
Elizabeth Lane
Vocal Solo....."The Low-Backed Car"
Clifford Erickson
Chorus....."Home Sweet Home"

During the intermission between the first and second parts, a violin solo, with an orchestral accompaniment, was well executed by Miss Grace Thompson.

Members of chorus comprised the little Misses Violet Bordson, Vesta and Countess Prestwood, Florence Campbell, Hershell Whitmore, Vera Scott, Elizabeth Lewis, Verna Quartaroli, Evelyn Peterson, Frances Murphy; Masters Coleman Campbell, Coil and Whit Whitmore, Cecil Hunter, Gordon Bordson and Everett Murphy.

PASSES AWAY IN SAN FRANCISCO

A. L. Wells, of this city, was summoned to San Francisco, Friday last, by the passing of his venerable mother, Mrs. Olive M. Washburn, who for several years had been a confirmed invalid, following a stroke of paralysis, from which death finally resulted.

Mrs. Washburn was a native of New York and had reached the advanced age of eighty-seven years. Many years of her life had been spent in California, and she had many friends throughout the State. She is survived by her son, A. L. Wells, an esteemed resident of Sonoma, and his daughter, Mrs. Chester Pressey.

Mrs. Washburn leaves a valuable daughter and little grandson an estate, and which Mr. Wells, his only heirs.

Entertains Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Boynton of Boyes' Springs had the pleasure of entertaining, last week, Mr. Boynton's nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Boynton, who are here from their home in Northampton, Mass. The Exposition and other points of interest in California will be visited by Mr. and Boynton.

NEWS NOTES BY CORRESPONDENTS

AGUA CALIENTE

Reported by Archibald McKiver

Mrs. Emma Olsen was a Caliente visitor in Santa Rosa, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Strum visited in Napa, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Strauss, of the Bay City, are guests at the Caliente Villa.

Gus Marcy and Jep Valente, of your city, were sight-seeing here, Sunday.

Chas. Danieli and family, of El Verano, were guests of relatives here Sunday.

Captain of Detectives Mooney, of the metropolis, is registered at the Agua Caliente Springs.

Thomas Richards, the popular and good-looking young assistant postmaster, transacted business at the county seat, Monday.

Several lots were disposed of, Tuesday, on the Sonoma Highlands Tract. The purchasers were parties from the metropolis.

Mr. Herman, our local barber, has a crew of carpenters at work on his new seven-chair barber shop, opposite Petters' Hot Springs.

Work will commence the first of the week on the new dance hall to be built on the property of the new Caliente Villa, of which H. Strum is proprietor.

George Goese, of Sonoma, was here one day last week. The summer girls this way think "George too cute for anything," and all are trying to get his number.

"Chip" Bonner, connected with the Sonoma Index-Tribune, accompanied by Mike Mannick of Ryan's Stables, was here, Tuesday, to look over the new dance hall and theatre now being constructed by Theodor Richards. Both were surprised when they gazed on the new structure, and claimed that it was the real thing. They promised to be on hand when the initial ball takes place, which will be about the middle of June.

The thirty room Park Hotel, the property of A. Booth, was opened for business last week. It has been newly furnished by Mr. Gros, the new lessee who with his family are here from the metropolis. Many improvements have been made around this beautiful hotel, which sits at the foot of the hills, surrounded by trees, near Petters' Hot Springs, and makes it one of the most beautiful spots in Sonoma Valley. Hot and cold water and electric lights are in each room, and a garage, now under construction. These people are well-known in the metropolis, and expect a large crowd of visitors during the summer season.

ARCHIE MCKIVER.

VINEBURG

Dear Easy Jim: I was somewhat amused, last Sunday, while reading the Index-Tribune, to discover that your able brother correspondent, at Agua Caliente, was in need of one of your fair assistants to help him out, and that he preferred Belle Brandon.

Nothing doing, Easy Jim! Excuse me. Everything was working smoothly with Archie and myself when I was his assistant reporter, and he used to buy me ice water and peanuts, and call me "Bonnie Belle Brandon." But just as soon as "Verano Verano" "budded in," I found myself sitting on a derailed switch, waiting for a hand car. Oh, sure, Archie is alright! But I remain yours,

BELLE BRANDON.

The many friends of M. A. A. Rice, formerly of this place, and a property owner, were very sorry to hear of the gentleman's death, which occurred in Los Angeles last Sunday, May 16th.

Smiling Jack, handsome Harry and "Starlight" Jim, three of Sonoma's most popular young men, stopped off, Tuesday evening, on their return from the metropolis to pay their respects to Howard Brown, at New Vineburg Inn. Always welcome, boys.

Mr. and Mrs. John Batto returned home, last Tuesday evening, after spending ten days as guests of friends and relatives in the Exposition City. During their visit they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. August Figone, and report a pleasant time, but "There is no place like home."

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lehrke and son Henry, spent the week-end at Los Amigos and Vineburg, returning to the city Sunday afternoon. This week Mr. Lehrke will start to Mendocino County to superintend the annual "Round Up" on a stock ranch, in which he is interested. Mr. Lehrke expects to remain in Mendocino for some little time.

The railroad carpenters have been busy repairing the freight shed at the station. We heard one merchant remark that it would be a good idea if the railroad officials would build an addition of about twenty-five or thirty feet to the present shed, for as it is now, it is altogether too small for the amount of freight handled at this point, and that sometimes the goods delivered look like they were put in the shed with a derrick fork, assisted by a forty-five ton hydraulic jack. Patience, public, till we get the water faucets first.

EASY JIM.

SAL'S PICK-UPS

Gathered in and Around El Verano

[SPECIAL BY LEASED WIRE, THE SHORTEST IN THE WORLD.] Dr. George Carpenter, Sr., was in town the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jensen and son are spending a few days at "The Nest," their summer home in El Verano.

Mr. Prosser, a well-known real estate man of Oakland, transacted business here the fore part of the week.

Frank Peebles, the talented violinist, and a star in "The Rosin and the bow fame," is registered at El Verano Villa.

Dutch Vincent was bronco busting this week. Dutch ranks as one of the best bare-back bronco riders in the valley.

Mr. Beverage has received from San Francisco a light auto truck which he will use transporting material to and from his neat little ranch in El Verano.

A resident of El Verano landed a steel head trout in a small stream that runs through his back yard, last week. The fish weighed three and one-half pounds.

A local contractor was heard to remark that the mammoth dancing pavilion and theatre that is being constructed at the Agua Caliente Springs, will take about a ton of nails in its building.

Wm. Baines arrived from the El Dorado mines, after spending several weeks in that locality. Bill says that the only gold he saw was a few "fives" that he took along to defray expenses on the trip.

The baseball game, Sunday, between Louis Kearney's Lumber Jacks and John Resien's Pool Sharks resulted in a victory for the Sharks. The score was 17 to 7 and a big crowd was in attendance. A return game will be played in the near future.

Hon. Oliver Wendall Brown, dealer in realty in the mountains of Agua Caliente, reports land as being way up high in his locality. Mr. Brown, by the way, has been some globe trotter in his day, and has drank tea in Yokohama and handled chop-sticks in Pekin town.

Emil Dutil, who is now a night watchman for a bank in San Francisco, was in town, Sunday, visiting his folks at "The French Cottage." Emil being an old ball player, entered in the game with the Lumber Jacks, and no doubt was disappointed to find himself amongst the losing team.

SAL SALARATUS.

SHELLVILLE

M. Millerick, our well-known dairyman, was called to Santa Rosa Tuesday.

District Attorney Clarence Lea was here last week, looking over his property.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Guilfoyle, of Embarcadero, had quite a few callers, Sunday last.

Miss Bertha Scheffer, of the City of Roses, spent the week-end here with her sister, Emma.

Mrs. W. Kehoe and daughter, Miss Alice, called on relatives and friends at Embarcadero, Sunday.

Mrs. Robert Hall, of Sunny Vale, had the pleasure of a visit this week from her nephew, Richard Dodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Logan Beamer and little Loganell drove over to Napa, Sunday, enjoying their trip very much.
